

Looking Ahead

This week, we finish 1 Thessalonians 4, learning what Paul has to say about the resurrection of the dead and the Second Coming of the Lord.

Next week, we will open up the last chapter in 1 Thessalonians, where Paul speaks of the coming Day of the Lord.

A few individuals in the church have been requesting Pastor Jim's sermon notes before Sunday mornings so they may follow along during the service. If this would also benefit you please reach out to Pastor Jim and he will be happy to add you to the email list.

EQUIP

Make a difference with your time, talents and treasures.

We are delighted to share the joyful news that Pastor Chris and Ally have welcomed their baby boy, Henry, into the world early last week! Both baby and mother are healthy, for which we are profoundly grateful. We kindly ask you to keep them in your prayers for continued health, happiness, and strength. Let's offer them our love and support as they take this time to adjust and rest as a family. Thank you for respecting their privacy during this special time.

Volunteers needed for our SERVE! Positions available for first aid team and kitchen/food prep. If you are available and interested please contact Pastor Jim for more details.

TEACH

Each month we hope you learn something new about God and share it.

A Verse to Think About:

"but I have raised you up for this very purpose, that I might show you my power and that my name might be proclaimed in all the earth." Exodus 9:16

This passage is to Moses. It speaks of an ongoing theme we see throughout the old and new testament. The Abraham, Jacob, Moses, the people of Israel, the apostles, the new testament church are here to see God's power and proclaim his name to all the earth. Mark and I have selected this as a theme for our work in discipleship and evangelism.
