

Looking Ahead

This week, we draw to a close our look at the two letters to the Thessalonian church. We learn about a very particular problem that is troubling them, and how Paul calls them all to "Never tire of doing what is Good".

Next week, Pastor Chris will be bringing us the message.

A few individuals in the church have been requesting Pastor Jim's sermon notes before Sunday mornings so they may follow along during the service. If this would also benefit you please reach out to Pastor Jim and he will be happy to add you to the email list.

A Verse To Think About

This, then, is how you should pray:

"Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one." Matthew 6:9-13.

I've found myself in a rhythm of praying the Lord's prayer throughout the day. This model of prayer, given to us by Jesus, truly helps us bring our mind to the work of God in the world, the desire for his goodness to invade the brokenness of the world, the plea for strength to overcome trials and our sinful desires, a prayer for strength to forgive, and awe at the grace and mercy of our Lord. It's truly a remarkable prayer; one that is a constant reminder to live as people of his Kingdom. Let us be reminded multiple times daily through this prayer who our King is, and what life is like in his Kingdom
