

Upcoming Sermons

This morning we will be looking at Matthew 6:5-15. This passage is at the center of the Sermon on the mount, and is central to the whole of Jesus' message. Jesus instructs his followers again to be careful not to practice prayer like the hypocrites who want to be seen by others, but instead to pray to their Father in heaven. If you're like me, maybe this passage and the Lord's prayer have begun to lose their meaning and significance for you, but for Jesus, this model for prayer was central for how he himself related to his Father, and how we are to relate to our heavenly Father. As we explore the Lord's prayer today, I hope we can see it with fresh eyes, and see how we can implement it every day in our lives.

Next Sunday, we are excited to have the men from Teen Challenge lead our worship service. The Teen Challenge team will share testimonies and share a short message. They will also be joining us for a potluck lunch after the service.

New To First Baptist Church?

On the backs of the chairs, we have communication cards you can use to ask questions, let us know you were here today, or even to write out a prayer request. You can give your completed card to one of our church leaders.

Our toddler room is located off the foyer with a mom's nursing room adjoining. Children aged 1-3 are dismissed from the service before the sermon for Toddler Time and those kids aged 4-10 for an age appropriate teaching time that is lots of fun. Pizza Boxes are available in the foyer with color and activity pages for children who wish to remain in the service.

Following the service, please feel free to join us in the gym for coffee and treats and to get to know one another.

First Connections is a weekly e-mail sent from the church office with news of church events. If you would like to be on this list please e-mail the office at office@fbcpa.net. There is also an e-mail list for prayer requests. If you would like to receive prayer requests please e-mail the office.

TEACH

Each month we hope you learn something new about God and share it.

Verse to Think About:

Then the LORD came and stood there, calling as before, "Samuel! Samuel!" And Samuel answered, "Speak, for Your servant is listening."—1 Samuel 3:10

KIDS! When Samuel was a boy he went to live in the temple with a Priest named Eli. One night Samuel heard someone calling him and he kept going to Eli thinking it was him who was calling Samuel. But Eli told Samuel that it was actually the Lord who was calling, so he better listen. Can you imagine what it would be like to hear the Lord's voice? Sometimes people really do hear Him, but sometimes God speaks to us in different ways. Sometimes He speaks through nature, or through friends and family, or through the Bible. Because God can speak in some many different ways, we need to always be listening. One way you can practice doing this is when you pray, leave some time to sit in silence and be like Samuel and say, "Here I am, Lord, I'm listening."—Naomi Klumpenhower

New to the Library:

A Greater Perspective, by Mark Hughes - The life-changing concepts of the Sermon on the Mount can be applied to our daily lives, as we tap into little-known spiritual principles that allow us to live a live that transcends the ordinary.
Unknown Threat, by Lynn H. Blackburn - U.S. Secret Service Agent, Luke, is lucky to be alive. As more agents are targeted, he has to work with an FBI Agent that he's not convinced is up for the job.
