

Upcoming Sermons

This morning we will look at the final of the three practices where Jesus warns us to Be Careful! Be careful that when you fast, you don't practice your righteousness to be seen by others. Giving and prayer both feel like familiar practices for many of us, but fasting? Fasting might feel a bit more optional, or like something we do sometimes. So what is fasting, and why was it such an important practice for the Israelites, and the early church? And if it was important for them, how should we view and practice fasting today? This is what we will explore this morning.

Next Sunday, Albert Heal will be preaching on Count Your Spiritual Blessings as seen in Ephesians 1:1-14. We have much to be thankful for this Thanksgiving season. At least eight times in Ephesians 1 we are told of spiritual blessing we receive "in Christ," "through Christ" or "in Him".

New To First Baptist Church?

On the backs of the chairs, we have communication cards you can use to ask questions, let us know you were here today, or even to write out a prayer request. You can give your completed card to one of our church leaders.

Our toddler room is located off the foyer with a mom's nursing room adjoining. Children aged 1-3 are dismissed from the service before the sermon for Toddler Time and those kids aged 4-10 for an age appropriate teaching time that is lots of fun. Pizza Boxes are available in the foyer with color and activity pages for children who wish to remain in the service.

Following the service, please feel free to join us in the gym for coffee and treats and to get to know one another.

First Connections is a weekly e-mail sent from the church office with news of church events. If you would like to be on this list please e-mail the office at office@fbcpa.net. There is also an e-mail list for prayer requests. If you would like to receive prayer requests please e-mail the office.

TEACH

Each month we hope you learn something new about God and share it.

Verse to Think About:

My son, if you accept my words and store up my commands within you, turning your ear to wisdom and applying your heart to understanding—indeed, if you call out for insight and cry aloud for understanding, and if you look for it as for silver and search for it as for hidden treasure, then you will understand the fear of the LORD and find the knowledge of God. For the LORD gives wisdom; from his mouth come knowledge and understanding.

—Proverbs 2:1-6

What is the wisest thing we can do? To know God. From him comes wisdom and understanding. Life lived with God is the wisest choice we can make. And God desires to give us wisdom and understanding, wisdom to know his will and listen to his leading. But this kind of wisdom doesn't just happen. We are told that we must seek out wisdom, and cry aloud for understanding. Life lived with Jesus doesn't happen from us doing nothing. And so we seek the Lord with all of our being, and strive to do it each and every day.

—Pastor Chris

New To The Library:

A Greater Perspective, by Mark Hughes - The life-changing concepts of the Sermon on the Mount can be applied to our daily lives, as we tap into little-known spiritual principles that allow us to live a life that transcends the ordinary.

Unknown Threat, by Lynn H. Blackburn - U.S. Secret Service Agent, Luke, is lucky to be alive. As more agents are targeted, he has to work with an FBI Agent that he's not convinced is up for the job.

The Barrister and the Letter of Marque, by Todd M. Johnson - As a barrister in 1818 London, William Snopes has witnessed firsthand the danger of only the wealthy having their voices heard and he's a strong defender of the poorer classes against the powerful. That changes the day a struggling heiress, Lady Madeleine, arrives at his door.
